RE: ETHICS DOCKET NO. 2001-176

Dear Ms. Vermaelen:

Initially, please find enclosed the Amended Committee's Report.

In preparing this Report, I used the Bank Statements, Invoice Reports, Receipts and Minutes from the Committee Meetings were used. Those documents had been forwarded to you on August 8, 2001. As you are aware, these documents were not maintain in a form or fashion which can be easily reconstructed and tabulated. However, every effort has been made to report all the financial activity of the 17 Member Committee to Incorporate Geismar from 1994 to its conclusion in July 2001.

The Report begins in 1994. I thought it was important to set forth the length of time this group of people tried to incorporate Geismar. As we have discussed, the Governor call the election for the incorporation of Geismar in late December, 2000. The actual election was held in April, 2001. From the minutes, it is apparent that the 17 Member Committee used the following methods to raise money to help finance the cost of pursuing the incorporation of Geismar, for example, the members paid dues of $5 per meeting, the members donated their own money, fund raisers were held (dinners, bus trips, raffle) and some monies were donated by interested persons.

Initially, the money was paid to my firm to cover the out of pocket cost to litigate the first effort to incorporate Geismar. This effort was unsuccessful in Court, a group of the petro-chemical industry obtained an injunction prohibiting the Committee from pursuing the Petition to Incorporate. However, as apparent from the minutes, the Committee continued to raise monies in its effort to incorporate Geismar. As demonstrated from the documents presented to you August 8, it took a great many man hours to finally prepared a boundary description acceptable to the Registrar of Voters, Assessor and Petro Chemical Industry, prepare the Petition itself, prepare the Summary, obtain the necessary number of signatures and finally deliver the Petition and attached documents to the Registrar of Voters.

I hope this Report clarifies the activity of the Committee.
